

Produit Praxinoscope, brass stand
 Référence 14799A

Praxinoscope, brass stand, supplied with 15 animated strips. The PRAXINOSCOPE was invented by the Frenchman Emile REYNAUD in 1876.

Thanks to its cylinder of mirrors, which eliminates the need for a shutter between each image, this optical toy provides better visibility of the animated strips compared to previously existing optical toys

Origin: Spain

Period: New

Materials: Brass

Dimensions: Height 22.5 x diameter 20.5 cm

Caractéristiques

Dimensions	Ht 22.5 x diamètre 20.5 cm
Material	Laiton
Origin	Espagne
Era	Neuf

Prix CHF 128.00 TTC
