. Jérôme DOUILLET was born near Grenoble in 1946. After studying literature, spending eight years in the audiovisual sector in Paris, and working on research films funded by the Clough Foundation - USA - and extensive travels, he began to learn the craft of metalwork, working alone, and with the guidance of a few 'masters' he set up his workshop in the Ardèche in 1977; in 1990 he settled in Lorraine, in the forest near Domremy

.".. states of AME, recounted through metallic MATERIALS and hammers, seeking to express the SPIRIT through the ancestral gestures of the hand—exhausting, fateful, mythical, repeated endlessly like a litany..."
