Référence 33844

Black marble stairball. Stairballs are steeped in history and have always been a favourite with collectors. First appearing in the 16th century, they were used to frame staircases and became a much-coveted item amongst the bourgeoisie as fashions changed. This one is made of grey-black marble and comes with its own plinth. Handcrafted and hand-turned by our artisans, its 'aged marble' patina lends it its authentic character. Origin: Asian
