

Produit 'Mercure' clock in gilded bronze
 Référence 35954

'Mercury' clock resting on a rectangular base decorated with cornucopias and flowers. White enamelled dial with Roman numerals and a chiselled bronze plate. The movement is set within a rectangular frame adorned with a cornucopia, flowers and two doves, surmounted by a gilded bronze figure depicting Mercury holding a caduceus and a purse. Several bronze elements adorn the lower section (a knapsack, a paddle, an inkwell and a barrel). These attributes are associated with Mercury, the god of travellers and wanderers. Origin: France
 Period: 19th century
 Materials: Gilded bronze

Dimensions: H 47 x 26 x 9.5 cm

Caractéristiques

Dimensions	Ht 47 x 26 x 9.5 cm
Matériaux	Bronze doré
Origine	France
Époque	19ème siècle

Prix 1,480.00 TTC
