Copperware calabash signed by Jérôme DOUILLET 93, decorated with hammered gold, copper and silver leaf. Jérôme DOUILLET was born near Grenoble in 1946. Following his studies in literature, eight years in the audiovisual sector in Paris, research films funded by the Clough Foundation - USA - and extensive travels, he taught himself the craft of metalwork, working alone, and with the guidance of a few 'masters' he set up his workshop in the Ardèche in 1977; in 1990 he moved to Lorraine, to the forest near Domremy."

.. states of AME, recounted through metallic MATERIALS and hammers, seeking to express the SPIRIT through the ancestral gestures of the hand—exhausting, fateful, mythical, repeated endlessly like a litany..."
